APOSTOLATE OF OUR LADY OF HOPE
ST. RAFKA MISSION OF HOPE & MERCY

Religious freedom, in the Bible and the American Constitution, is America's greatest gift to a world tormented by hate and religious persecution.

Like the good Samaritan, our mission is to save lives from all kinds of persecution, rejection, or neglect and to confirm them in God's image, the Author of all Goodness.

Guided by the Spirit of the Lord, and in light of the Gospel, we toil to save the persecuted flock wherever that might be. With this, our initial aim is to protect and preserve Christianity and its roots; to restore hope, faith, and love to all the children of Abraham.

We serve based on the two greatest commandments of God: to love God with all your heart, and to love your neighbor as yourself.

We are not just a charity mission, we aim to protect and promote the body of Christ in its fullness. We are the faithful in action defending religious freedom, protecting human rights, and serving persecuted Christians and other innocent sufferers by means of awareness and charity.

We stand as a united front of Christians of all church traditions to safeguard the natural law, etched by God in our hearts, for the sake of peace, love, coexistence, and life with dignity for all.

Our mission is to provide charity to Christians in need, spread awareness about the truth and hope of Jesus Christ, and defend religious freedom.

JANUARY

Lord Jesus Christ, You sustained Your people through hunger, exile, and fear.
Grant us faith that endures hardship and love that refuses to fade.
Console the suffering, strengthen the weary, and remind us that You are near.
May we trust in Your mercy and glorify You in every trial. Amen.

FAITH THAT REFUSES TO DIE

For more than 1,600 years, the Maronites have endured invasion, persecution, famine, and exile, yet they never abandoned their faith. High in the mountains of Lebanon, they preserved Christianity through prayer, resistance, and trust in God. Their story is one of quiet courage: refusing to bow to oppression while clinging to Christ as their refuge. This faith, born in hardship, remains alive today in the suffering Church of Lebanon.

SAINT MARON: A LIFE THAT BECAME A PEOPLE

Saint Maron never intended to found a church or a nation. He simply sought God in prayer, asceticism, and preaching. Yet his holiness drew others, forming a community devoted to Christ. From one hermit's fidelity emerged a people shaped by prayer, sacrifice, and Gospel witness. His legacy reminds us that God uses faithfulness, not power, to transform the world.

THE MOUNTAINS AS SANCTUARY

When persecution intensified, the Maronites fled to Mount Lebanon, not to escape faith, but to preserve it. They carved villages from rock, terraced mountainsides, and turned caves into churches. These mountains became both fortress and altar. Their survival teaches us that even barren ground can bear fruit when entrusted to God.

A CHURCH BORN OF ANTIOCH

The Maronite Church traces its roots to Antioch, where followers of Jesus were first called Christians. Founded by Saint Peter himself, this Antiochene heritage anchors Maronites in apostolic faith, Syriac tradition, and unwavering communion with Rome. It is a living bridge between East and West, ancient and modern, suffering and hope.

When we are tempted to compromise truth, anchor us in prayer and courage. May our lives proclaim Your Gospel without fear. Amen.

A PEOPLE OF PRAYER AND RESISTANCE

Maronite history is marked not by conquest, but by perseverance. Through prayer, fasting, and trust in God, they resisted forces that sought to erase their faith. Their resistance was not hatred, but fidelity. Even when oppressed, they chose to bless, endure, and remain rooted in Christ.

THE SACRED VALLEY OF HOLINESS

Wadi Qannoubine, the Holy Valley, became the heart of Maronite spiritual life. Here, patriarchs, monks, and hermits lived in austerity, prayer, and communion with God. Surrounded by towering cliffs, they learned to depend fully on divine providence. Their holiness still echoes through Lebanon's valleys today.

JULY

Lord of the martyrs, Receive those who suffered for Your Name.
Give us courage to bear witness with love, even when faith is costly.
May their sacrifice strengthen Your Church today. Amen.

A CHURCH OF MARTYRS

Many Maronite patriarchs, monks, and faithful were imprisoned, tortured, or killed for their faith. Churches were burned. Villages destroyed. Yet the Maronites never renounced Christ. Their witness reminds us that the Church grows strongest when it is purified through sacrifice and love.

Merciful Father, In times of hunger and need, be our provider.
Bless those who suffer from poverty and war. Teach us to share generously and to trust in Your unfailing care. Amen.

HUNGER, FAMINE, AND TRUST IN GOD

Famine was a recurring reality for the Maronites. Crops failed. Food vanished. Entire families starved. Yet their prayers cry not of despair, but hope: "Deliver us from hunger, war, and plague." Their faith teaches us that God's mercy sustains His people even in the darkest hours.

SEPTEMBER

Good Shepherd, Bless all who lead Your people with humility.
Strengthen pastors who give their lives in service. May Your Church be guided by wisdom, mercy, and truth. Amen.

SHEPHERDS WHO LAID DOWN THEIR LIVES

Maronite patriarchs were not distant leaders, they were fathers who suffered with their people. Many gave away church resources to feed the poor, ransom captives, and save villages. Their leadership reflected Christ the Good Shepherd, who lays down His life for His flock.

God of freedom, Set our hearts free from fear and sin. Grant us the liberty to worship You in truth. May our faith never be silenced and our hope never extinguished. Amen.

FREEDOM FOR THE SAKE OF THE GOSPEL

For Maronites, freedom was never political alone, it was spiritual. They sought freedom to worship, to raise families in faith, and to proclaim the Gospel. Their longing reminds us that faith cannot flourish without freedom of conscience and devotion to truth.

Lord of unity, Preserve Your Church in love and truth. Heal division and strengthen communion. Keep us faithful to Your Eucharist and Your Church, now and always. Amen.

A CHURCH WITHOUT DIVISION

Remarkably, the Maronite Church has remained united, without internal schism, through centuries of trial. This unity flows from fidelity to Christ, the Eucharist, the Virgin Mary, and communion with the Pope. It is a testimony that unity is preserved through humility and obedience.

LIGHT IN THE DARKNESS

Through centuries of suffering, the Maronites clung to one truth: Christ is the Light that no darkness can overcome. Even in war, exile, and hunger, they proclaimed hope. Their story prepares our hearts for Christmas, the Light born into a world in need.
