

Monthly Report – August 2025

Executive Summary:

In August 2025, the Mission of Hope and Mercy continued its commitment to serving vulnerable communities by responding to urgent needs through food assistance and community support. This month's highlight was a significant contribution to the Rosary Sisters' Scout Group summer camp, ensuring 100 children had access to proper nutrition, hygiene, and a nurturing environment. These efforts not only provided material relief but also reinforced our mission of fostering dignity, compassion, and hope

1. Key Activities and Support Provided:

1. Food Assistance and Hygiene supply:

In response to a request from the Rosary Sisters' Scout Group, part of the Cedar Scouts Association, the Mission of Hope and Mercy provided over 420 lbs of essential food and hygiene supplies to support their July summer camp. This donation helped ensure proper nutrition and care for 100 participating children.

Items Delivered:

- Tuna: 116 pcs (38.3 lbs)
- Cream Cheese: 36 pcs (31.7 lbs)
- Hummus: 41 pcs (36.1 lbs)
- Hotdogs: 72 pcs (63.4 lbs)
- Luncheon Meat: 116 pcs (204.2 lbs)
- Ketchup: 1 pc (5.3 lbs)
- Milk: 5 pcs (8.3 lbs)
- Sugar: 4 pcs (7.9 lbs)
- Toilet Paper: 120 rolls (approx. 26.4 lbs)

Total Weight: 421.6 lbs

This initiative reflects our continued mission to support children through food security and community partnership.

2. Impact on Beneficiaries:

- Nutritional Support: 100 children received balanced meals during the camp, promoting better health and energy for activities.
  - Hygiene and Wellbeing: Provision of toilet paper and essential supplies ensured proper sanitary conditions, contributing to the children's safety and dignity.
  - Community Empowerment: Strengthening ties with the Rosary Sisters and the Cedar Scouts Association enhanced collaboration and created a model for future youth-focused initiatives.
  - Psychosocial Benefit: By relieving families of additional costs, the donation allowed children to fully enjoy camp activities, fostering joy, teamwork, and resilience.

3. Challenges and Areas for Growth:

- Sustainability of Food Assistance: Demand for food aid continues to rise, highlighting the need for longer-term strategies beyond emergency distribution.
- Resource Mobilization: With limited funding and growing requests, expanding donor networks and recurring contributions remain a priority.

- Scaling Impact: Opportunities exist to extend similar support to other youth groups and summer programs, but this requires stronger partnerships and expanded capacity.

Conclusion:

The Mission of Hope and Mercy's work in August 2025 reflects how small acts of generosity can transform lives, particularly for children who represent the future of our communities. By addressing immediate needs and fostering partnerships, we create a lasting impact that goes beyond one-time support.
